

May 31st (Sun)
 Aug 22nd • 23rd (Sat) (Sun)
 Oct 18th (Sun)
 Dec 6th (Sun)

Let's have fun!
Culture & nature

Kyoto JC Bunka Shonen-Dan

- Culture School for elementary school kids -

Let's join together for the 2020 program

What is Kyoto JC ?

Kyoto JC is also known as "JCI Kyoto". JCI stands for Junior Chamber International. We hold many programs as volunteers for making world better for everyone. Our members are under 40 years old, and there are more than 170 thousand members all over the world. We hold this culture program "Bunka Shonen-Dan" since 1979.

- Date 4 programs (31st May, 22nd to 23rd Aug., 18th Oct., 6th Dec.)
- Student Elementary school kids 1st to 6th grade (or 6 to 12 years old)
- Fee 12,400Yen (including registration fee and accommodation fee)

program theme

Kyoto traditional "WAZA"

What is "WAZA"? — the technique of a superior craftsperson.

Let's experience together Japanese culture with various friends !

Pickup

Aug. 22•23
 2nd Program
Summer Camp

Date : 22 Aug. 12:00 ~ 23 Aug. 14:00
 Meet & Dismiss : at JR Nijo station
 Venue : AWL Keihoku / Cedar tree Center
 Program : Making Chopsticks, Nature walk, BBQ, Nagashi-Somen (Somen flowing in water), Making Japanese pickles, Lantern walk, etc.

Let's have fun together !

Organized by Kyoto JC (or JCI Kyoto)
 Cooperated by Kyoto International School
 Supported by Kyoto City and Kyoto Municipal Board of Education

Kyoto JC Bunka Shonen-Dan

- Culture School for elementary school kids -

Let's join together for the 2020 program

Due Applications due is April 30th in 2020. (Maximum Capacity is 150 persons.)

Student Elementary school kids 1st to 6th grade (or 6 to 12 years old)

- ※ age or grade is as of April 1st in 2020
- ※ a parent or guardian can accompany (accommodation fee is required)
- ※ residence or school needs to be located in Kyoto City

Fee Admission fee 1,100 yen ※ Not required from 2nd year
 Program fee 5,500 yen (for whole programs in the year)
 Accommodation fee 5,800 yen

In total 12,400 yen

KIS WEB site

Application Please apply by Web application form at KIS Web site

Program Schedule ※ More details will be announced to participants

Date	Program	Venue
May 31 st from 10 to 12 am	Make and paint "Cho-chin lantern" together in Japanese traditional way. Cho-chin is Japanese paper lantern, developed in Kyoto in "Hei-an era" and still is popular in Japan, especially in Kyoto.	at "former Yu-sai elementary school" close to Keihan Sanjo station
Aug 22 nd and 23 rd from from 22 nd 12 am to 23 rd 2 pm	1) Walk and play in mountain and feel nature, eat BBQ for dinner 2) Hold Cho-chin lantern event at night; light up Cho-chin and walk along together. 3) Make Japanese pickles with vegetables in Kyoto. 4) Visit Cedar Tree Village, and learn history and culture in mountain area and make chopsticks together with Japanese Cedar tree. 5) Eat So-men, Japanese white noodle for lunch with chopsticks.	Meeting and dismissing at JR Nijo station Programs are held at AWL Keihoku (also known as Kyoto Seminar House) and Cedar Tree Village
Oct 18 th from 10 to 12 am	Paint plates with Urushi (known as "Japan") in Japanese traditional way.	at "former Yu-sai elementary school" close to Keihan Sanjo station
Dec 6 th from 10 to 12 am	Make "Mochi rice cake" together by pounding steamed rice in a stone millstone. Demonstration by 4 university students from Kyoto traditional art school.	at "former Juraku elementary school" next to KIS

Staff

We ask volunteer staff from volunteer groups from universities; Doshisha University and Ritsumeikan University.

※ For each volunteers, we ask to follow our rules including KIS staff code of conduct.

Inquiry

Email to Atsuhiko Uda (from Kyoto JC): atsuhiko.u@nifty.com